THIS PLANNER BELONGS TO

Grade: _____

School: _____

Teacher(s): _____

Started on: _____

If found, please return to: _____

Phone / email: _____

Undated - start any day, any year. A full school year of homework, one page at a time.

HOW TO USE THIS PLANNER

Takes about 5 minutes a day. You don't have to fill in every box - use what helps.

1. Recharge first

Tick snack, water, move and quiet time before starting. A tired brain can't focus.

2. Pick your Top 3

Choose the three most important tasks, then write a tiny first step (2 minutes or less) so starting is easy.

3. Write every step

In Homework, break each subject into steps. Your planner remembers so your brain doesn't have to.

4. Guess the time

Before you start, guess how many minutes it will take. After, write the real time. You'll get better at guessing.

5. Work in sprints

Fill one circle for each 20 minutes of work, then move for a minute. Set a hyperfocus alarm so you remember to stop.

6. Park distractions

A random thought pops up? Write it in the Parking Lot and get back to work. Do it later.

7. Check before handing in

Use the checklist so silly mistakes don't cost you points.

8. Notice your win

Write one win - even a small one - and give yourself the reward you picked.

Every week

Fill in the My Week page: big due dates, one goal, your streak and a friendship check-in.

Every month

Use the Monthly Reset page to look back, plan big dates and pick one habit.

This planner is a tool, not a test. Messy pages still count.

HOW MY BRAIN WORKS BEST

Fill this in with a parent, then show it to your teachers. It helps them help you.

I focus best when...

e.g. I sit near the front, I have quiet, I can fidget

Things that help me

e.g. written instructions, a timer, movement breaks

Things that make it harder

e.g. lots of noise, long lists said out loud

When I'm stuck, please...

e.g. check in quietly, show me the first step

The best way to remind me

e.g. a note on my desk, a quiet tap

My strengths

e.g. creative ideas, kind, great at building things

Name: _____ Parent signature: _____

Everyone's brain is different. Knowing yours is a superpower.
